JOINT STATEMENT FROM OKCPS SUPERINTENDENT AURORA LORA & OCBA – AFSA PRESIDENT GREG FREDERICK

“We as professional educators are committed to coming together, face-to-face, to restore and reopen critical conversations essential to the success of Oklahoma City Public Schools. By continuing to build our relationship and strengthening our communication, we are optimistic about future collaboration. The past few weeks have been challenging, but our organizations remain focused on what’s best for the children of Oklahoma City. We look forward to working together in 2017.”
